ORIENTATION WEEK
DESCRIPTION	DATE/LOCATION/FORMAT
Programme Induction
The programme induction is an essential component of your orientation week, providing you with a comprehensive introduction to your academic journey ahead. This informative session aims to familiarise you not only with the teaching staff who will guide you throughout the year but also with your fellow classmates. It offers a valuable opportunity to meet and connect with your peers, fostering a sense of community and collaboration right from the start. Together, you will explore the structure of your program.  Through interactive presentations and discussions, you will have the chance to engage with your classmates, exchange ideas, and build relationships that will support and enhance your learning experience at the University of Glasgow. By the end of this session, you will feel equipped not only with the knowledge and confidence necessary for your academic journey but also with a network of classmates to embark on this exciting adventure together.
