

Celebrating Hispanic Collections at University of Glasgow

Date: Thursday 1st May

Time: 13:00 – 16:45

Location: Hunterian Art Gallery Lecture Theatre (Room 103), 82 Hillhead Street

13:00 – 15:00
About Collections Lab: The Collections Lab Directors
Welcome and Introduction: Siobhán Convery, Director of Library Collections
Prof. Sandy Wilkinson Professor of Early Modern European History, University College Dublin	Keynote: Don Cruickshank and the Cruickshank Collection
Bob MacLean Archives & Special Collections	Early Iberian books in the Old College Library and the story of Captain John Anderson
Dr. Hilary Macartney, Honorary Fellow, The Stirling Maxwell Centre Dr. Luís Gomes Senior Lecturer (Portuguese) Hispanic Studies	Illustrated Books from Iberia and the Spanish Habsburg World: Celebrating the Stirling Maxwell Collection in the University of Glasgow Library
Dr. Michelle Craig Lecturer in Information Studies	Collecting Hispanic books in eighteenth-century London: a case study from William Hunter's library
Prof. Vicente Pérez De León Professor in Hispanic Studies	Cervantes in Glasgow
Dr. Julia McClure Senior Lecturer in History	MS Hunter 242, The Tlaxcala Codex: recovering Indigenous American perspectives on colonialism
Rodrigo Hernández Gomez Mexican visual artist	On artistic engagement with The Tlaxcala Codex (MS Hunter 242) – Marker in an Inhabited Time

--	--

Coffee break with a display of treasures from the Cruickshank Collection (curated by Jack Baldwin)

15:30 – 16:45
Dr. Lola Sánchez-Jáuregui Hunterian Curator of Art	Hispanic art in the Hunterian art collection
Dr. Carter Lyon Postgraduate Researcher, School of Culture & Creative Arts	Technical insights into the Hunterian Art Gallery's Anne of Austria portrait.
Prof. Evelyn Arizpe Professor of Children's Literature, School of Education	Mexican Muralist Gustavo Chávez Pavón's Celebration of Glasgow COP26: 'Artivism' and Community in the University of Glasgow
Dr. Andrew Mills Hunterian Curator of World Cultures	Material culture from Spain and former Hispanic Colonies in the Hunterian
Jesper Ericsson Hunterian Curator of Numismatics	Hispanic Coins and Medals at The Hunterian
Closing remarks: The Collections Lab Directors

