

Gerald Gordon Seminar in Criminal Law 11 June 2015

PROGRAMME

All events apart from the evening dinner take place in the Sir Charles Wilson Seminar Rooms, University of Glasgow.

- 11.00 Registration (coffee available)
- 11.30 Professor Anne-Marie Kilday (Oxford Brookes): "Monstrous murderers and problematic prosecutions: tracing infanticide in the British courtroom, 1600-2000"
- 12.15 Professor James Chalmers (Glasgow) and Professor Fiona Leverick (Glasgow): "Criminal law's legitimacy problem"
- 13.00 Lunch
- 14.00 Dr Sharon Cowan (Edinburgh): "Sex, gender and consent in the criminal law"
- 14.45 Dr Eimear Spain (Limerick): "Emotions and the reasonable man: psychological and philosophical perspectives"
- 15.30 Rahim Foroughi Nik (PhD student, Nantes): "Emotions under the dichotomy of the justification of punishment: a history of the place of emotions in retributive and utilitarian theories of punishment"
- 16.00 Coffee
- 16.30 Professor Kathryn Campbell (Ottawa): "Right to silence: the limits of Canadian and Scottish criminal law"
- 17.15 Professor Donald Nicolson (Strathclyde): "The psychology of expert testimony: a matter of common sense or expert assistance?"
- 18.00 Close
- 18.30 Dinner Left Bank Restaurant, 33-35 Gibson Street: <http://www.theleftbank.co.uk/>

Directions

The Sir Charles Wilson Seminar Rooms are in a converted church at the intersection of Gibson Street, Bank Street and Kelvin Way. The seminar rooms are in the basement. They are building E15 on this campus map: www.gla.ac.uk/media/media_1887_en.pdf. If you are coming from the city centre, the closest underground station is Kelvinbridge (marked on the map and less than 5 minutes walk away).

We are extremely grateful to the Clark Foundation and the Faculty of Advocates for their financial support of the 2015 event.
